

Do you run a summer program for children 18 and under in a low-income community? If so, participants in your program may be eligible for federally funded free meals throughout the summer. Churches, community centers, and other non-profits can become involved in the Summer Food Service Program as a local sponsor or site.

Please contact the Child Nutrition Outreach Program at Project Bread at (617) 723-5000 for more details. If you were a site last year, please contact your sponsor directly.
